

BINDURA UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE EDUCATION
FACULTY OF SCIENCE EDUCATION AND ENGINEERING

DEPARTMENT: HEALTH SCIENCES

PROGRAMME: BACHELOR OF SCIENCE HONOURS DEGREE IN NURSING
(NURSING EDUCATION) (HBScNsE)

COURSE CODE NS211 (1): PEDIATRIC NURSING

DURATION: 3HOURS

TOTAL MARKS: 100

JUN 2025

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

Answer ALL questions. Each question carries 25 Marks

.....

1. Masuzyo, a four month old baby girl has been admitted for repair of the cleft lip and palate.

Describe the:

- a) Preoperative nursing interventions for client (7 marks)
- b) Postoperative nursing interventions for the baby (18 marks)

2. Thabani, an 8month old baby boy presents with his mother at the health centre with a history of shortness of breath and rapid breathing, especially during feeding, and cyanosis. After investigations, the baby is diagnosed with Tetralogy of Fallot.

- a) Formulate one priority nursing diagnosis for the client (1 mark)
- b) Describe the nursing interventions for the formulated nursing diagnosis (24marks)

3. A six year old boy sustains a fracture while playing on a swing at school. On examination the arm is swollen and the child is in pain.

- a) Formulate one priority nursing diagnosis for the client (1 mark)
- b) Describe the nursing interventions for the above nursing diagnosis (24 marks)

4. A paediatric nurse has been invited to give health education to adolescents at a local school health. Discuss the health issues to be addressed by the nurse.
(25marks)

END OF PAPER