

COURSE	:	CRIMINOLOGY
CODE	:	PS 211 / PS 301
DURATION	:	3 HOURS
TOTAL MARKS	:	100

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

- There are 6 questions answer any 4 questions
- Each question carries 25 marks
- Cellphones are not allowed in the examination room
- Begin each answer on a new page

QUESTION ONE

Explain the following terms as they apply to the field of Criminology:

- (a) Conflict and Consensus views of Crime
- (b) Diamond Theory
- (c) Micro and Macro Sociological theories of Crime
- (d) Theories of Punishment
- (e) Methods of Measuring Crime Data

[Total 25 marks]

QUESTION TWO

Draw comparisons between Johann Kaspar Lavater and Robert Agnew's contributions to Criminology.

[25 marks]

QUESTION THREE

"Are white collar offences really crimes at all?" (Szabo 1977). Basing on the above question, analyse the effectiveness of penal sanctions on corporate criminology. [25 marks]

QUESTION FOUR

As a policy maker in Criminology, design an interventionist programme that can be put in place to prevent crime using Crime Prevention and Social Development (CPSD) strategies. [25 marks]

QUESTION FIVE

With the aid of examples, interpret the different types of crime diffusion that can take place during the process of crime prevention. [25 marks]

QUESTION SIX

- (a) Examine how crime control and due process models differ in approaches. (10)
- (b) Basing on research, debate the pros and cons of each one of them in achieving better results for crime prevention and control. (15)

[Total 25 marks]

END OF PAPER