1. This paper contains ONE section.
  2. Answer ANY THREE questions.
  3. Begin each question on a new separate page.
  4. All questions carry equal marks.
1. Develop a problem analysis tree to outline how a community can understand the causes and effects of any development issue of your choice.
  2. Utilising Paulo Reglus Neves Freire's Conscientisation approach, explain how you would plan to address oppression and seclusion in any marginalised community of your choice.
  3. Critique the importance of monitoring and evaluation in community development projects.
  4. Using the Ecological Systems perspective, examine how community work can be used to address the challenges of drugs abuse in Zimbabwe.
  5. '...no formula for effective engagement exists. How could it when every locality, with its own histories, environments and politics, is home to a host of unique relationships?' (Sarkissian et al, 2010). In the context of forging effective relationships, discuss the implications of this assertion in the process of community mapping.
