

FACULTY OF SCIENCE
DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH SCIENCE
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE HONOURS DEGREE IN NURSING EDUCATION

NURSING EDUCATION 11

00 MAY 2019

NE 211

3 HOURS (100 MARKS)

Instructions: Answer ALL questions. Each question carries 25 marks.

1. Describe the characteristics of an effective school head in a nurse education institution
[25 marks]
2. Describe the following management functions and how they could be applied to nursing education:
 - a) Planning [13 marks]
 - b) Coordinating [12marks]
3. a) Using specific examples, discuss how the nurse education administrator could maintain order and control of student nurses in a nurse training institution.
[10 marks]
- b) Describe the challenges faced by nurse educators in the selection of 'ideal' prospective nursing students and how these could be overcome.
[15 marks]
4. a) Explain key principles of the scientific management theory and their application to nursing education administration.
[10 marks]
- b) Explain the nurse educator's sources of authority in a nurse training institution, giving examples from Zimbabwe.
[15 marks]