HCHS402: ISSUES IN MUSEUM AND HERITAGE STUDIES

EXAMINATION

TIME: 3 HOURS

INSTRUCTIONS

Answer any THREE questions

1. With the aid of relevant examples from Africa, examine the extent to which the destruction of heritage properties is an infringement of human rights.
2. 'Museum and heritage studies have their roots in Europe'. How has this affected the development of this discipline in Africa? Use relevant examples to illustrate your answer.
3. Analyse the major challenges of local community involvement in the conservation and management of heritage sites in southern Africa.
4. With reference to Authorized Heritage Discourse (AHD), discuss how museums and heritage sites have been managed in Africa.
5. To what extent do you agree with the assertion that everywhere, the past and its material remains is a battlefield of rivalry attachments? Use relevant examples to support your answer.
